

5th Annual Kosher Chili Cook-off

Sunday, February 21st, 2010

12:30 – 3:00 PM

Cook-off Details

Registration

Registration form and fees must be received at the Congregation Agudas Achim office by Wednesday, January 31, 2010.
Mail the form to CAA at PO Box 28400; Austin, TX 78755; bring it in person or fax it to 735-8401.

Arrival and Check-in

Teams should arrive at the Dell Jewish Community Campus for check-in at 8:00 AM on Sunday, February 21st. Spices, vegetables and any other chili condiments will be checked for appropriate Kosher symbols at that time. Meat and cooking utensils will also be distributed at check-in.

Team Members and Booth Set-Up

Each team will receive up to 4 tickets to the event. Cooking and serving areas will be limited to 4 team members only and are not safe for children due to the open flame propane burners. Teams are encouraged to dress in costume and decorate the booth. Have fun and be creative!

Note to parents of children in religious school: February 21st is a regular day for CAARS – please have your children attend their regular CAARS schedule and join you for the fun at 12:30pm.

Utensils

Each team will receive a burner, pot, small cutting board, knife, utensils, aluminum pans, colander, paper towels and sample cups. Every cooking and serving item will be kosher. No outside utensils or pre-prepared foods will be allowed.

For more information or to volunteer, contact David Herzog at iamdjh@gmail.com or Jamie Cohen at Jamie.cohen@jasonsdeli.com
